

Join talented classical arranger, Detroit Symphony
bassist-turned-composer

Rick Robinson and friends for a POWERFUL evening of

SYMPHONIC STRING SEXTETS

@ Kerrytown Concerthouse (.com)
Friday, March 30 at 8pm

- Chabrier - España Rhapsody
- Jenkins - Palladio (The Diamond Commercial)
- Satie - Gymnopedie No. 1
- Bolling - Tango from the Jazz Suite for Violin
- Enesco - Romanian Rhapsody No. 1
- Robinson - Sextet for Strings in A Major (Mighty Love)
WORLD PREMIERE!

In the spirit of his acclaimed CutTime Players (cuttime.com), Robinson takes on a new challenge when joined by DSO colleague violinist Hai-Xin Wu, violinist Kyoko Kashiwagi, violists John Madison & Eva Stern, and cellist Sarah Cleveland to inaugurate a NEW ensemble with freshly transcribed works from the lively symphonic to the classically jazzy.

Coming off the premiere of his grand orchestral work Essay (After Sibelius) by the DSO last year, Robinson premieres his 1st chamber work, a sexy, traditional, 5-movement work inspired by romance. Detroit Free Press music critic Mark Stryker called Robinson ... “a promising composer with a taste for fleshy, romantic textures.” Don’t miss this inspiring event!

Tickets $30/20/15/10

Seating is limited so reserve your seats today!

Call 734-769-2999 or email kch@kerrytown.com